"Thank you for the absolutely lovely welcome lunch today. I had no idea when I reached out to Steph late last year that doing so would lead to such a wonderful, multifaceted opportunity: firstly and most obviously, in the form of an exciting new position but also and more relevantly, to be welcomed with such warmth and enthusiasm into the broader relatbl team. I am extremely grateful and will use my new merchandise at work with pride!"

"Pre-recruitment your help was really appreciated. I initially applied for a communications role but the Department felt I aligned better with a different role. relatbl made the switch to the new interview really smooth, talked me through the position and provided advice on how to best approach the interview.

I felt supported through the whole experience. I also really appreciated that relatbl kept in touch while I waited for my police clearance which took longer than usual - once again, all communication was clear and concise and eased any potential concerns I had.

relatbl shines post-recruitment as well. Whenever I need to discuss something I have received very prompt responses from all the team, the meet-and-greet with the team when I first arrived in Canberra was a kind gesture, and the ongoing networking events have been great to keep in touch. Overall my experience with relatbl has been fantastic."

"I would like to share the key difference I find with relatbl compared to other agencies I have had dealings with. I've called two other agencies in Canberra just to ask questions about jobs that were advertised. Both occasions I was made to feel like I was a burden for calling and interrupting. In my contact with relatbl I have felt valued, heard and welcomed. ... the difference from my perspective between relatbl and other agencies I've had experiences with, is relatbl instils value into people and does not makes people feel like another outcome."

"Thank you so much for your lovely email! Thank you all for the opportunity you have given me and being the single greatest recruitment company I have ever had the privilege of working for. You are truly wonderful people!"

R.M., database manager and admin contractor,
December 2019

"Thank you all very much for your time, the lovely gifts, yummy lunch and the wonderful company yesterday. I really really enjoyed meeting you all. You made me feel very welcome and after a long time I feel like I belong somewhere. It is so valuable for people like us that have no close family here."

"I would like to express my delight in my experience of working with you all this past year. From our early beginnings with coffee in Lyneham to lunches and dinners at various swish establishments I have been taken on a most excellent adventure. What I cherish the most is your kindness, compassion and your patience. I feel welcome and valued for my participation and contributions. I have been encouraged to progress and grow and I feel I am a better person for having worked with you."

J.R., data analyst, December 2020

"I just wanted to thank you again; it was lovely to meet a recruiter who seems to genuinely value and care about candidates during what was a particularly trying job-search at times. If I'm looking for something in the future I'll definitely know who to approach first."

S.W., admin candidate, September 2019

"You are by far one of the best recruiters I've had the pleasure of dealing with so please definitely keep my details handy if there's anything else that comes your way."

C.D., communications candidate, September 2019

"Thanks for our conversation today. I really enjoyed it and I have to say you were the most energetic and engaging recruiter I've come across so far!"
